

Alexandria Gazette.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAY 17, 1893.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Sun rises to-morrow at 4:51; sun sets 7:50. High water 8:44 a. m. and 9:10 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair to-night till Friday; northwest gales, diminishing; slightly cooler Thursday morning.

AN EFFICIENT OFFICER.—Mr. J. E. Clements, of the county, was in the city today. Concerning politics in the county Mr. C. says he thinks clerk Young's re-election assured, since the republican convention declined to make a nomination against him. He says that the people of the county, irrespective of party or politics, were greatly concerned in getting a prompt, honest, careful, reliable and competent clerk for the Circuit and County Courts, and a great majority of the voters of the county believed that they had found such a man in Mr. Howard Young. They remembered that but a few years ago, prior to Mr. Young's taking charge of that office, that the county suffered greatly from neglect in the business of the office. The business of the office is growing rapidly, and the position is responsible and trust. The prosperity of the county depends much upon a capable and honest clerk, and much money and papers and records of great value are entrusted to his care. Mr. Young is very methodical and systematic in the work of his office, in the filing of his papers, and keeping his records, and he is undoubtedly getting all the arrangements of the place in such good order as to compare favorably with any clerk's office in the State. Mr. C. says that in the past the clerk's office affairs in the county have been bad, and now that under the systematic work of Mr. Young they are being improved and perfected, he thought it would be quite a calamity to the county to lose him. It matters not who runs against him, said Mr. C., Mr. Young will be elected by quite a large majority.

CAPT. MCCARTY'S LECTURE.—The audience which assembled at the Opera House last night to hear the lecture of Capt. Page McCarty on "The Irish Soldier in History," while not so large as had been desired, was attentive and appreciative and was well entertained and rewarded by the lecturer. The subject chosen by the lecturer was admirably handled and evidenced thorough study and research and, though critically historical, was enlivened with pungent Irish humor and French criticisms, varied with renditions of old Irish ballads by an orchestra. Miss Greenwell, of this city, sweetly sang "The Harp of Tara" and other ballads, and was loudly cheered. The lecture was divided into two parts, the first being devoted to the early pioneers of America and the Irish soldiers with the Virginia Rangers; to the Irish soldiers who followed the exiled Stuarts into France and who were so greatly distinguished in European battles. The second part reviewed the achievements of the Irish soldiers in the American revolution, the Mexican war and through the late civil war, and closed with a most beautiful and worthy tribute to the gallant sons of Erin who in whatever battle they had participated had never lost a color.

THE LINCOLN CAR.—The car which is generally supposed to have been built in this city during the war for the late President Lincoln, and which is to be taken to Chicago for exhibition, is about to have its tradition spoiled. Last night while waiting for a quorum to appear in the chamber of the Common Council Messrs. Paul R. Evans and John Harrison, who worked at the government shops in this city during the war, engaged in a conversation with others concerning this coach, during which they stated emphatically that this car was never built for Mr. Lincoln, but was constructed for Brigadier General McCallum, who during the closing days of the war had charge of the reserves and government workmen here. While the car was being constructed the General was questioned incessantly as to its disposition and growing weary of making explanations finally said it was for President Lincoln. His words proved prophetic however, as the first service it performed when put on the rails was to transport the late President's remains to Springfield, Illinois.

ALEXANDRIA'S SUBURBAN VILLAGES. The Alexandria correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says: The city of Alexandria has of late developed a number of projects for suburban towns in its neighborhood. There has always been a suburb known as "West End" on its west boundary and a suburb known as "The Village" on its southwest edge. Later, "New Alexandria," established by the Land and River Improvement Co. and connected by a bridge across Hunting creek, has been pushed forward with vigor. Northwest Alexandria has been laid out as a villa town, with drives and surface gutters. "Spring Park," on the west edge of the city, has been mapped off into town lots and large improvements are promised. The Potomac end of Baltimore, at Shepherd's, opposite this city, and connected by a railway ferry, is destined to become a village of considerable importance.

CAMILLE.—Miss Josephine Cameron will appear at the Opera House to-night in "Camille," her favorite role. The New Haven, Conn. Journal and Courier, referring to a recent performance of the play in that city, says: "As 'Camille' Miss Cameron held the rapt attention of the large audience every moment she held the stage. She is an actress of remarkable powers, emotionally, and gave an interpretation of the gay Parisian woman that was refreshing and beautiful in its strength and novelty. Coarseness and commonplace are unknown to her art. Hers is a power of pure, strong, deep, womanly fascination. She is stately and noble in passion, almost marblelike and cold in her supremest moments."

APPOINTMENT.—Mayor Strauss today, at the request of three of the four members of the committee on poor of the City Council, appointed Mr. C. J. W. Summers Dispenser of Medicine, in place of the late Dr. James Entwistle. There were several applicants for the position. The Mayor will at the next meeting of Council notify that body of the vacancy, and an election of a dispenser will follow.

CITY COUNCIL.

A meeting of the City Council was to have been held last night to consider the engineer bill. It was generally understood, however, late in the day that there would be no meeting, as some of the members interested in the bill would be unable to be present.

BOARD OF ALDERMAN.

Aldermen Marbury, Burke, Hinken, Bryant and Leadbeater appeared, but no quorum being in the Common Council chamber the Aldermen were not called to order.

COMMON COUNCIL.

The board had eight members present at 8 o'clock. When the meeting was called to order, Mr. Fisher stated on behalf of his colleague, Mr. Kraft, that Mr. K. had been called away by an important matter and regretted that he could not be present at the meeting.

The chair said he had received a message from Capt. Mushbach stating that he was so engaged that he would be unable to be present at the meeting and as these gentlemen had charge of the engineer bill nothing could be done in that matter, and as under the resolution adopted at the last meeting no other business could be transacted he would declare the board adjourned.

THE A. L. I. FAIR.—Armory Hall was ablaze with variegated lights last night and the beauty and the chivalry of the city were gathered there to attend the fair for the benefit of the Alexandria Light Infantry—one of the crack military companies of the State. The special feature of the evening was the visit of the Corcoran Cadets from Washington. The visitors were escorted from the depot to the armory by the Light Infantry, headed by the Alexandria Drum Corps, and were welcomed by Captain Mushbach in a most cordial speech to which Capt. Edwards responded. After spending a pleasant evening the visitors were escorted back to the depot and left for Washington on the 11:08 train. To-night the Washington Fencibles will visit the fair. The attendance last night was largely in excess of the previous night and the attractions were more numerous. All who go enjoy themselves. Among the many beautiful articles at the fair, and probably the most artistic in design, is an exquisite white satin baby's quilt, each square hand painted in the most beautiful manner. A royal princess might dream beneath the roses and lilies that look as though they were strewn by the hand of Nature. This beautiful work of art was presented to Mrs. George Mushbach by Reverend Mother Benedictine, of Mt. St. Agnes Collegiate Institute, Baltimore county, at which college Mrs. M. was a pupil.

PERSONAL.—Rev. Theron H. Rice, Jr., of Alexandria, Va., is conducting a special series of meetings for young men at the Young Men's Christian Association every evening this week, at 8:15 and next Sunday at 4 o'clock p. m. Mr. Rice has proven himself to be a speaker of rare ability, and large numbers of young men have attended the first two meetings. Mr. Rice is a young man of pleasing address and undoubted personal magnetism. His audiences are always dressed in an instructive and profitable address.—Richmond Times.

Mr. L. W. Spear was in the city again to-day looking after his electric railway interests. Mr. Geo. Bauer, of St. Louis, is visiting friends in this city. Mrs. W. S. Jones, of Fairfield, Conn., is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. H. D. Smoot. Rev. George A. Grillbortzer and Miss Hannah Moran, of lower Loudoun, were married yesterday at Fairview Chapel. Mr. and Mrs. Grillbortzer will soon go to Brazil.

Mr. Richard Cowling is very ill at the Concordia.

Mr. Anthony McLean is seriously ill at his home in Fairfax county.

ARRESTED.—Richard Stewart, colored, 18 years old, was arrested at his home in the southwestern section of the city yesterday evening by Officer Grady on a telegram received from a letterbox, Ky., charging him with robbery. It appears that Stewart recently lived with R. C. Burns, postmaster of that town, and left there on Saturday for his home in this city. Soon after his departure Mr. Burns missed some money and checks and telegraphed here to arrest Stewart. The latter reached here on Sunday and Officer Grady had little difficulty in finding him. He has told different stories about the matter and will be held to await the action of the Kentucky authorities.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and cool with one prisoner and five lodgers at the station house. The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases: Frank Conway, colored, for disorderly conduct, was fined $2.50 or given 30 days. Henry Anderson, colored, for being drunk and disorderly, was fined $5. Hester Marshall, mother of the woman who was recently engaged in the row which took place in the southwestern section of the city, was fined $4.50 and discharged. Good Templars.—The District Lodge of Good Templars, which finished its session last night, decided to give an excursion during the summer. The meeting was one of the largest temperance gatherings ever held in this city. The excursion to Mt. Vernon was greatly enjoyed, as was also the musical and literary programme furnished by Golden Light Lodge. The visitors left for their homes this morning much pleased with their visit. Golden Light Lodge was again awarded the banner for the largest gain in membership having initiated 90 new members.

AN APPEAL FROM AFAR.—Mayor Strauss has received a circular from the headquarters of the San Francisco unemployed for aid for themselves and families. They state that they are in a destitute condition from the depression existing in that portion of the country. They attribute their troubles to the evils of murderous competition, the supplanting of manual labor by machinery, excessive Mongolian pauper immigration, the curse of absentee landlordism and a villainous system of finance.

FIRE COMPANY MEETING.—The Columbia fire company met last night when the committee appointed to make arrangement for visiting Frederick, Md., next month, on the occasion of the firemen's celebration there, reported progress. The company accepted the invitation of Lee Camp to take part in the celebration of Confederate Memorial Day in this city on the 24th inst., and also an invitation to attend the Alexandria Light Infantry fair on the night of the 24th.

DEATH OF ANOTHER CITIZEN.—Mr. Franklin P. Grimes, youngest son of the late Enoch Grimes, died suddenly at his residence, on Prince street, between Henry and Fayette, last night. The deceased had been in bad health for some time, but had worked in Washington yesterday. After having returned home he had a hemorrhage of the lungs and died soon thereafter. The deceased was in his 39th year and leaves a wife and six children.

ASKED HER REMOVAL.—Mr. Meredith discovered yesterday that a colored woman holding a place in the Census Office is credited to his district, and that she obtained the appointment through the influence of John M. Langston, who robbed a democrat of his seat in Congress. Mr. Meredith has requested Secretary Smith to remove the woman and to appoint a democrat who is a bona fide resident of the Eighth District.

AN INSTRUMENTAL CONCERT.—The Washington Mandolin, Banjo and Guitar Club will give one of their excellent entertainments in this city next Monday night at the Opera House. The club is composed of well-known and talented artists, and will be assisted by the Waterbury Bros., who gave an interesting entertainment in this city a short time ago.

LOCAL BREVITIES. Mr. F. J. Travers, who has been fishing Pamunkey Point, "cut out" yesterday. The stock of the late Dr. James Entwistle's drug store—the old city dispensary—was sold at auction to-day. Lee Wah, who is the only Chinaman in this city, has registered in accordance with the laws. Do not forget to go to the Opera House to-morrow night to hear Miss Westcott. You cannot fail to be pleased. The remains of the late Miss Ann Rose Washington, who died in North Carolina recently, were interred here to-day. The board of excise commissioners have approved the applications for liquor licenses of A. C. Gorham and W. R. Newlon. Charles, the 12-year-old son of Richard Mills, living three miles from Occoquan, was killed on Monday by a tree falling upon him. Mr. Jas. P. McCrink has sold to two ladies of Connecticut three lots on Washington street, between Madison and Montgomery, for $900. While on the excursion to Mt. Vernon last night a son of Mr. John Bartlett had one of his fingers caught in the electric car door and badly mashed. Henry Arnold, colored, who has become a "regular customer" at the station house, was there again this morning for disorderly conduct and was fined $5. It is understood that the first trial in January, 1892, of Jefferson Phillips for the killing of George S. Smith cost over $350 and the second trial last week nearly $500. Marriage licenses were issued in Washington yesterday to Geo. Javins and Ora Lyles, both of Fairfax county; Alexander Williams and Ella Green, both of Sussex county. A horse belonging to Mr. J. C. Milburn ran away to-day from the local depot, smashed the wagon to which it was attached and badly cut itself. The frightened animal was caught near the Virginia House. One of the electric cars, on which were a number of Good Templars on their return from Mount Vernon last night, got off the track near the dike, but no damage was done. The excursionists boarded another car which was immediately ahead of them and reached this city on time. The St. John's Cadets gave a dress parade this morning and marched through the principal streets of the city. Later the cadets left on the steamer Harry Randall for an excursion to River View. The May term of the Circuit Court of Alexandria county will convene on Monday and will last but one day, as Judge Keith will have business at Lexington which will require his attention there next week. The Confederate Veterans of Washington met last evening and accepted an invitation from Lee Camp of this city, to attend memorial services on the 24th instant. Catillon, a French physiologist, found that the addition of from seven to eight grains of glycerine to the daily ration of a lot of Guinea pigs increased the effect of their food so that they gained from one-tenth to one-fifth of their weight in a given time, while a second lot fed on the same ration, but without glycerine, gained nothing; when the dose of glycerine was changed to the second lot they gained weight, and the first lot gained nothing. Large doses of glycerine, however, cause derangement of the digestive organs.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
